Commissioners

Barry C. & E. Sue Swanson

Commissioner Barry C. Swanson was appointed Territorial Commander and Commissioner E. Sue Swanson Territorial President of Women’s Ministries for the USA Eastern Territory as of February 2013. As Territorial Commander, Commissioner Barry Swanson is the administrative and ecclesiastical leader of The Salvation Army in 10 Eastern states plus Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, with headquarters in West Nyack, N.Y. The territory includes more than 1,600 active and retired officers, 369 corps, and more than 1,000 other centers of operation.

Commissioner Barry Swanson, a native of Chicago, attended Northern Illinois University, where he earned a bachelor’s degree in marketing. In 1975 he married Sue Miller and they entered the College for Officer Training in 1976, being commissioned as officers in 1978. Lieutenants Barry and Sue Swanson were appointed to corps work in Michigan and continued in this sphere of ministry for 12 years.

In 1990 Commissioner Barry attended The Salvation Army’s International College for Officers (ICO) in London, England. Commissioner Sue Swanson had a similar opportunity to grow in her faith in Christ with other officers at the ICO in 2000. Both testify to the truly enriching experience that being a delegate at the ICO affords.

Captains Swanson were first appointed to the Heartland Divisional Headquarters in the USA Central Territory in June 1990, followed by another corps appointment prior to becoming the divisional leaders of the Heartland Division in August 1995, with promotion to the rank of Major.

The Swansons’ officer experience was further widened in July 1999 when they were appointed to Territorial Headquarters in Chicago, with promotion to Lieutenant Colonel. In 2001 Lt. Colonel Sue became Territorial Candidates Secretary, a role she found particularly fulfilling. This was followed by an appointment in July 2006 to USA National Headquarters in Alexandria, Va.—Lt. Colonel Barry Swanson as National Chief Secretary and Lt. Colonel Sue Swanson as National Secretary for Women’s Ministries.

A year later and promoted to the rank of Commissioner, the Swansons were appointed to International Headquarters (IHQ) in London, where Commissioner Barry Swanson became International Secretary for the Americas and Caribbean Zone, while Commissioner Sue Swanson was appointed as Zonal Secretary for Women’s Ministries. Just one year later, in October 2008, Commissioners Swanson returned to the USA to assume responsibilities as Territorial Leaders of the USA Central Territory. In addition to being appointed Territorial President of Women’s Ministries, Commissioner Sue was given the role of Territorial Ambassador for Prayer.

In May 2010 the Commissioners returned to IHQ as Chief of the Staff and World President of Women’s Ministries, respectively. As Chief, Commissioner Barry Swanson was second—in—command of the worldwide Salvation Army and chief administrative officer for The Salvation Army’s IHQ.

The Swansons are parents to four adult children: Joan Kurtz, married to Patrick; Will and Chrissy Swanson, who have two daughters, Luella and Martha, and a son, Barry; Michael, married to Kristina Bonesteel; and Andrea Strand, married to Colin, who have twin boys, Walter and Harvey.

Commissioners

Dick & Vibeke Krommenhoek

Commissioners Dick and Vibeke Krommenhoek are living proof of The Salvation Army’s internationalism, Dick being Dutch and Vibeke being of Danish descent. During their 30 years of officer-ship they have served the Kingdom of God in many different Salvation Army settings on the corps, divisional and territorial levels. For Dick and Vibeke this has meant living in different European cities, such as Amsterdam, Copenhagen, Paris, London and Helsinki. Last February they added Oslo to the list as they are presently serving as the Territorial Leaders of the Norway, Iceland and Faeroes Territory. In his previous appointment, Dick served as the General’s Representative for Global Evangelization, assigned to investigate and prepare for new openings in countries where The Salvation Army had not been officially present; countries like Namibia, Greece, Burundi, Mali, Kuwait, United Arab Emirates, Sierra Leone, Vietnam and Nepal. In the same time period, Vibeke was responsible for the opening of the work of The Salvation Army in Poland.

With anticipation, Dick and Vibeke Krommenhoek are looking forward to participating in the 2014 Old Orchard Beach Camp Meetings. They pray that through their ministry God’s Kingdom will be strengthened for growth and that Jesus Christ will be uplifted.
Members of the Montclair Citadel Band love making music. And the music they make—whether the scherzo from Tchaikovsky’s Symphony #6 or a familiar hymn—is excellent. Acknowledged as one of The Salvation Army’s finest brass bands, the group has performed with luminaries including Wynton Marsalis, the Canadian Brass, and Philip Smith, principal trumpet of the New York Philharmonic. It has delighted audiences in Canada, Bermuda, England and throughout the United States in such concert venues as Avery Fisher Hall at Lincoln Center, Alice Tully Hall in New York, and the Victoria Theater at the New Jersey Performing Arts Center. In 2006, the band appeared in London, at the Gospel Arts Concert in Royal Albert Hall with the International Staff Band, the premier band of The Salvation Army.

Several years ago, the band joined forces with Zdenek Mácal and the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra in an unforgettable performance of Tchaikovsky’s 1812 Overture in Prudential Hall of the New Jersey Performing Arts Center. This past December, the Montclair Citadel Band appeared again with the New Jersey Symphony to great acclaim at its annual Home for the Holidays concert.

The band’s repertoire ranges from transcriptions of classic favorites, solo works for some of the band’s virtuoso performers, toe-tapping Sousa marches to hymn tune and contemporary Christian arrangements familiar to church-goers everywhere. But while the band is at home on the concert stage, its primary ministry is at The Salvation Army in Montclair, NJ, where it provides music to enhance worship services each Sunday. Band members often extend that ministry beyond the corps building to nursing homes and to hospitals.

The Montclair Citadel Band is made up of men and women of diverse backgrounds and responsibilities. Professional musicians play alongside educators, administrators, Salvation Army officers, and students. Many members received their musical training as part of Montclair Citadel’s extensive junior band program. Regardless of differences in age and in experience, they are united by their love for music and for God.

Charles Baker is the son of Salvation Army officer—parents and a fifth-generation Salvationist. He has served as the bandmaster of the acclaimed Montclair Citadel Band for more than 35 years. In those years, the band has developed into one of the foremost Salvation Army bands, while maintaining its focus on ministry to God.

Since 1975, Charles has been the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra’s principal trombonist. In addition to distinguishing himself as a conductor within brass band circles, he has been a guest conductor with the New Jersey Symphony, New Jersey Pops Orchestra, Nassau Symphony, and the Grand Teton Orchestral Seminar in Jackson Hole, Wyoming. He attended the Eastman School of Music and studied trombone with Emory Remington. He has three musical sons: Matthew (percussion), Andrew (tuba) and Mark (trombone), a current member of the band. Each of them learned to play at Montclair Citadel. His wife Michelle is a French hornist in the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra.

Mannssambandet is a territorial vocal male group of The Salvation Army in Norway.

The group, also called The M–Band, (easier to pronounce!), has been one of Norway’s most profiled Christian groups over the last nineteen years.

The M–Band consists of eleven men from different Salvation Army corps in Norway. They get together several times a year for concerts throughout Norway and abroad. The Salvation Army in the United Kingdom has invited this group four times; three times to London and once to Aberdeen. They have conducted world tours to South Africa, Australia, Indonesia, and Singapore and visited many of the European countries. They have shared the stage with several well known Norwegian and international artists and have been featured on national Norwegian TV on many occasions. One of the highlights is their contribution in a TV show together with Leningrad Cowboys.

The M–Band was originally created for a full day of fundraising in 1995 for The Salvation Army on the National TV in Norway. Since then they have pleased different kinds of audiences with their mixed styles of music. A concert with The M–Band gives you a varied repertoire containing rock, pop, gospel, ballads, country, and lots more.

A concert with The M–Band provides you with a pleasant combination of good music, humor, and a Spiritual take on life.

This group has produced nine CDs and some of these will be available for purchase.

A newspaper in Norway covered a concert a few years ago and said: “A meeting with The M–Band is a meeting you never will forget.”

“This was a huge musical experience. An octet with class with great musical arrangements packed with great joy. This was really awesome!”

The M–Band is looking forward to sharing their music and making new friends with Salvationists and friends at OOB 2014.

Thor Fjellvang was born in Brevik in Telemark, Norway, in 1958. Both his parents were Salvationists. At the age of 10, he was playing the organ and later the piano in the meetings at the corps.

At fourteen years old, he played in the first local Christian pop–group, called The Messengers. One year later he was invited to participate in Joyfriends. The great inspiration was The Joystrings, along with The Imperials and other gospel groups.

Thor arranged most of the music for Joyfriends. This group toured Scandinavia, especially Sweden and Norway, and made two records.

When Thor and his wife attended the Salvation Army (SA) Training College in 1979, he took a short break from the music groups. He became a music teacher at the SA Training College in 1983, and established the Norwegian Salvationists Band (NSB). This group became popular in Norway, and toured Iceland, Faraos, Sweden, Denmark, New Zealand, and Australia (1987), and were nominated “The Christian Artist of the Year” three times in Norway.

Thor was responsible for the music for the annual Salvation Army television show in October 1995. He then started a big band, a gospel choir, and the M–Band (Mannssambandet in Norwegian), which have had continued success for the last 19 years. The list of records, TV–shows, and tours all over the world continues to be extensive.

When The Salvation Army established the recording studio, “FA Studio”, Thor became the central arranger, composer, producer, and musician. From 1997 until 2011 he was managing the thrift stores for The Salvation Army in Norway. He was the Territorial Music Secretary in 2002, and was instrumental in starting up Baby Song Ministry in Norway.

Thor Fjellvang is still writing music, and has contributed four of the melodies in the most recent SA Songbook in Norway.
Majors Kevin and Cheriann Stoops are children of officer parents and have lived in various parts of this territory. Kevin also lived in Canada during his high school and college years. Majors Kevin and Cheriann Stoops have been officers in The Salvation Army for 25 years. They have had various appointments in corps, DHQ, THQ and the College for Officer Training. Currently, they are the corps officers at the Asbury Park Corps in New Jersey. They both have a passion for the word of God and enjoy teaching. They have been married for 24 years and have two children. Their son, Arthur, is currently serving in the Marine Corps stationed in Washington, DC. Their daughter, Frannie, lives in Pittsburgh with her husband, Mike, and teaches at a day care center.

Eastern Territorial Songsters

Since 2005, the Eastern Territorial Songsters (ETS) has shared in ministry with the New York Staff Band, International Staff Band, Canadian Staff Band, Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir, trumpeter Chris Jaudes, vocalist Whintley Phipps, and Christian songwriters Ken Medema and George Beverly Shea. ETS has had the privilege to support the preaching ministry of past international leaders of The Salvation Army: General Linda Bond, General Shaw Clifton, General John Larsson, General John Gowans, General Paul A. Rader, General Bramwell Tillsley, and General Eva Burrows. The experienced ETS vocalists from all parts of the Eastern Territory promote the Gospel of Jesus Christ in a diverse range of appointments and responsibilities. Part of their training has been under the tutelage of Major Len Ballantine (former International Staff Songsters leader), Lt. Colonel Norman Bearcroft (inaugural International Staff Songsters leader), Dr. Beatrice Holz (vocal professor at Asbury College), S/L William Rollins, and current leader S/L Gavin Whitehouse.

CROSSFIRE BRASS

Army brass banding has been around as long as the Camp Meetings, and Crossfire Brass, with Bandmaster Ronald Waiksnoris as leader, continues that tradition. The band will support worship at the Tuesday night Camp Meeting, is the featured group at the Friday night Praise Gathering at the OOB Pier, and will also support the Sunday worship service at the corps.

Turn on your TV or radio and you will find no shortage of next-big-things and overnight successes. But in the midst of all of that noise, you may find yourself craving something more. Something authentic, something familiar, yet fresh.

Look no further. The women of Point of Grace are celebrating 20 years together, and with this celebration they offer A Thousand Little Things, their 12th record. Brimming with the beautiful harmonies, encouraging lyrics, and graceful melodies that Shelley Breen, Denise Jones, and Leigh Cappillino are known for, A Thousand Little Things reminds us to be mindful of the multitude of blessings God has given us. And what the world needs now, more than ever, is to remember how important gratitude is, each and every day.

You may ask yourself how a band that has already achieved such monumental success—27 #1 songs, 13 Dove awards, two GRAMMY nominations, career album sales in excess of 7 million with multiple Platinum and Gold certifications, and one of the top 10 best-selling artists in the history of Contemporary Christian Music—presses on? It’s quite simple: They love what they do, and they love sharing it with their fans. They are moms, wives, and artists; and, like every working woman, they’re thankful for the fullness in their lives, yet striving to find balance. A strong work ethic, fostered through years of touring, recording and writing, drives these three women to keep making music to share with their listeners.

Point of Grace will appear in concert on Monday, July 28 at the OOB Camp Meeting located at the Pavilion. For more details, check the schedule on page 3.

Don’t miss this delightful musical for the whole family!! Based on the story of “The Ugly Duckling” by Hans Christian Andersen, composers George Stiles and Anthony Drewe won the 2000 Olivier Award (the British equivalent of the Tony Award) for Best New Musical (beating “The Lion King”). Children and adults alike will enjoy the story of Ugly, whose odd, gawky looks instantly incite prejudice from his family and neighbors. Separated from the farm and pursued by a hungry cat, Ugly must find his way home. Along his rollicking and harrowing journey, he not only discovers his true beauty and glorious destiny, but also finds love and acceptance in all forms. (70 minutes with no intermission)
Know the Secret

“It’s an open secret that Jesus is mine ... it’s an open secret I want you to know, I love my Savior so!” Fifty years ago, these words marked the beginning of a new era of innovative evangelism for The Salvation Army with the birth of The Joystrings, the first contemporary Christian rock band in church history! General Frederick Coutts said of them: “... They have successfully shown how to harness the best of the moment for the service of the gospel.”

This year at the Pier, the Eastern Territory will seek to fulfill Commissioner Swanson’s STRIKEPOINT mandate by developing innovative evangelistic methods to share the gospel story by “harnessing the beat of the moment.” We will premier new tools, resources, and strategies which will be used in local corps campaigns as well as by individual Salvation Army soldiers.

What can you do to be a part of this exciting campaign?

1. PRAY – pray with us that the Pier will be a place where every person will hear, see, and experience the love of Christ through positive encounters with The Salvation Army. We want the secret to be proclaimed—JESUS IS THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD!

2. VOLUNTEER – if you are planning to visit the Pier during the Old Orchard Beach Camp Meetings, we invite you to partner with us as a Prayer Warrior or “1–O–1” (one–on–one) Evangelist! You can sign up to help on any evening you are available. Contact sharon.bussey@use.salvationarmy.org to be a part of this event.

“You’re here to be light, bringing out the God-colors in this world. God is not a secret to be kept. We’re going public with this, as public as a city on a hill ... I’m putting you on a light stand—shine!”

— Matthew 5: 14–16 (MSG)
LEADERSHIP SUMMIT  JULY 28 – AUGUST 1

The LEAD Draw Near Conference, in conjunction with the 2014 Old Orchard Beach Camp Meetings, is meeting daily on the University of New England’s Campus in Biddeford, Maine. Soldiers and lay leaders from across the territory are gathering for specific evangelism, discipleship, and corps leadership tracks. Please pray during this event and afterward as delegates return to their corps, that they be used of God to help His people deepen their walk with Christ.
